Numb. 12520.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday February 17, to Saturday February 21, 1784.

St. James's, February 21.

THE following Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Denbigh, has been preſented to the King by Lloyd Kenyon, Eſq; His Majeſty's Attorney General, Chief Juſtice of Cheſter, and one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the Borough of Hindon, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Denbigh, aſſembled at a County Meeting duly ſummoned by public Notice from the High Sheriff, at the ſame Time that we lament the political Diſtractions of the preſent Time, beg Leave to offer to your Majeſty our moſt grateful Acknowledgments of that ſalutary and expedient Exerciſe of your Majeſty's Royal, conſtitutional, and undiſputed Prerogative of diſmiſſing, from the Public Service, the late Miniſters of the Kingdom.—A Set of Men, who, ſeparated in Principle, were united only in that Luſt for Power and Employment, which they graſped at with Deceit and obtained by Violence: Men, who fortunately for the Kingdom, at an early Period of their Adminiſtration, were weak and daring enough to diſcover a Deſign, in one and the ſame Meaſure, of ſacrificing the Rights and Properties of Individuals, and the juſt and equitable Limits of our ſacred Conſtitution,

Long may your Majeſty continue to be the watchful Guardian of your own Prerogatives, and therein of your People's Rights; whilſt we making humble Offers, as we now beg Leave to do, of our Lives and Fortunes, in Support of your Majeſty's Exertions to theſe great Ends, are ſatisfied, we do all that in us lies to tranſmit inviolate to Poſterity, that Conſtitution which has been bequeathed to us by the Virtues and Wiſdom of our Forefathers, truſting that, in the End, your Majeſty, by Divine Providence, may reign quiet and undiſturbed in the Hearts and Affections of a free and united People.

Signed, by Order of the Meeting,

Thomas Fitzmaurice, Chairman.

The following Addreſs of the Citizens of Briſtol, has been preſented to the King by Sir Watkin Lewes, Knt. one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the City of London, accompanied by the Right Honourable Lord Hood, Thomas Evans, Eſq; and Mr. David Lewes, Merchant, Burgeſſes of the ſaid City, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

The humble Addreſs of the Citizens of Briſtol to His Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Citizens of Briſtol, in Merchant Taylors Hall aſſembled, ſenſible of the Obligation we are laid under by your Majeſty's benevolent Conduct on a late alarming Occaſion, feel ourſelves bound to approach the Throne with all Humility and Reſpect, and to repeat our aſſurances of our conſtant Attachment to your Majeſty, and the Government of our Country.

The late Attempt ſo raſhly made by a Miniſtry, under the ſpecious but deceitful Pretence of the Good of the People of your Majeſty's Kingdom of Great Britain, to annul the Rights of the Eaſt-India Company, and raiſe an influencing Power, unknown to our Conſtitution, and ſubverſive of its Welfare, we have beheld, with great Concern and Apprehenſion, as tending, on the one Hand, to infringe on the Rights of the Crown, and, on the other, to injure your Kingdom at large.

As this Attempt however was wiſely fruſtrated, and your Majeſty has ſince, in your abundant Regard for the Good of all your faithful Subjects, diſmiſſed and removed that Miniſtry, which boldly endeavoured to carry it into Execution; we look up to your Majeſty with Gratitude of Heart, for having thus exerted your Prerogative on ſo neceſſary an Occaſion.

We rejoice in ſeeing that your Majeſty hath borne in Mind the very Spirit of our Conſtitution, by the Choice of another Miniſtry which we hope do not mean to diſtinguiſh between the Intereſts of the Subjects, and thoſe of the Crown; but which, on the contrary, by blending them inſeparably together, will become as deſerving your Majeſty's Confidence, as of the Reſpect and Admiration of your Kingdom at large.

The Prerogatives of your Majeſty's Crown being in this Manner exerted for the Good of all your People, we, the Citizens of Briſtol, beg your Majeſty to accept our warmeſt Thanks for the ſame, with an Aſſurance that we ſhall ever be ready, at the Expence of our Property and Lives, to defend and preſerve them inviolate for the Benefit of Poſterity, againſt all Encroachments whatſoever.

[Signed by 1065 reſiding in Briſtol, and 32 Burgeſſes reſiding in London. In all 1097.]

The following Addreſs of the Corporation, Freemen, and other Inhabitants of the City of Wells, has been preſented to the King by John Curtis, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid City, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs dreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Corporation, Freemen, and others, Inhabitants of your ancient City of Wells, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty in this Hour of public Danger, with humble but ſincere Aſſurances of our inviolable Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, confiding, as we do moſt cordially, in your Majeſty's paternal Regard for the Welfare of all your Subjects, and in the Virtue of the preſent Miniſters.

We humbly preſume to hope that your Majeſty will be graciouſly pleaſed to continue ſuch Men of Integrity and Ability as your Counſellors and Adviſers, to the Comfort of your loyal Subjects, and to the Eſtabliſhment of your Throne in Proſperity and Happineſs.

The following Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants and Inhabitants of the Town of Wolverhampton, has been preſented to the King by Sir John Wrotteſley, Bart. one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County of Stafford, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants and Inhabitants of the Town of Wolverhampton, in the County of Stafford.

SIRE!

THE Miſrepreſentations of a deſperate Faction, having marked, with an unmerited Obloquy, our loyal Addreſs to your Majeſty, as not containing the general Sentiments of the Inhabitants of this Town, we feel ourſelves again compelled to approach your Royal Preſence.—Bold in the Spirit of Independence, we ſtand ſuperior to the deſpicable Views of Party Intereſt, unbiaſſed by the Influence of Wealth, unawed by the Mandates of Nobility.

Determined to ſupport the Conſtitution, as delivered down to us by our Anceſtors, we will reſolutely aſſert our own Liberties, and your Majeſty's Prerogatives.

The Time approaches when we truſt your Majeſty will take a decided Reſolution: The Voice of your People riſes from every Part of your Dominions, and claims the Exertion of your conſtitutional Prerogative, to liberate your Royal Perſon, and your faithful Subjects, from the aſpiring Inſolence of diſappointed Ambition

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Bugeſſes, Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of New Windſor, has been preſented to the King by Penniſton Portlock Powney, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of New Windſor, in the County of Berks.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

STRONGLY impreſſed with Sentiments of Loyalty and Affection to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, Family, and Government, we the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, Gentlemen, Clergy, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of New Windſor, humbly beg Leave to return your Majeſty our unfeigned Thanks for your Majeſty's conſtant and uniform Attention to the Welfare of your People, the prudent Exertion of your Royal Prerogative, and the Defence of our glorious Conſtitution.

We alſo beg Leave to offer our warmeſt Acknowledgments, and to expreſs our Gratitude to your Majeſty, on the Choice of an Adminiſtration, in whoſe Integrity, Abilities, and Rectitude of Intentions, we have the utmoſt Confidence.

Your Majeſty may reſt aſſured that we ſhall, on all Occaſions, be ready and willing to ſupport your Majeſty in the Exerciſe of your Royal Prerogative, and in the Purſuit of all ſuch Meaſures as may be conducive to the Honor and Dignity of your Crown, and the Welfare and Happineſs of your People.

[Signed by 163 Perſons.]

The following Addreſs of the Bailiff, Approved Men, Burgeſſes and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Andevor, has been preſented to the King by General Sir John Griffin Griffin, Knt. of the Bath, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiff, Approved Men, Burgeſſes, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Andevor, whoſe Names are hereunto ſubſcribed.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff, approved Men, Burgeſſes, and Principal Inhabitants of your ancient and loyal Borough of Andevor, beg Leave humbly to thank your Majeſty for your Royal Attention to the Good of your People, in diſmiſſing from your Majeſty's Councils your late Miniſters.

Your Majeſty's Steadineſs to ſupport the Rights of your People, and to preſerve the juſt Prerogative of your Crown, cannot but impreſs the Minds of your loyal Subjects with a Degree of Gratitude equal to their Abhorrence of the Violence of the Men, who attempted to deſtroy the Chartered Rights of the India Company from ambitious Motives, and with an Intent to create an Influence new and dangerous to our happy Conſtitution.

Though we lament the preſent unhappy Diviſions which impede the public Buſineſs of the Nation, we doubt not but the Conduct of your Majeſty's preſent Miniſters, and the Support of your People, are and will be ſuch as to maintain your Majeſty's Crown and the Conſtitution inviolate.

Attached to no Party, but animated by theſe Conſiderations, we reſt in Confidence of your Majeſty's Wiſdom, in rejecting Men of ſuch diſcordant Principles as formed your late Miniſtry; and employing ſuch only who can juſtly claim the Confidence of your Majeſty, and the Support of your People.

We ſincerely pray that your Majeſty's Reign may be long and proſperous, over a free and happy People.

The following Addreſs of the Capital Burgeſſes, Freemen, Freeholders, Inhabitants and Electors of the ancient Borough of Lyme Regis, having been tranſmitted to the Right Honorable Lord Sydney, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has by his Lordſhip been preſented to the King: Which Addreſs His Majeſty has been pleaſed to receive very graciouſly

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Capital Burgeſſes, Freemen, Freeholders, Inhabitants and Electors of the ancient Borough of Lyme Regis, in the County of Dorſet.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Capital Burgeſſes, Freemen, Freeholders, Inhabitants and Electors of your ancient Borough, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty's Throne, with the deepeſt Impreſſions of Gratitude and Attachment to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, Family and Government, and with a Tender of our moſt heartfelt Acknowledgements for removing from your Royal Perſon, Councils and Government, a Coalition of Miniſters, One Part of which had, by the groſſeſt Incapacity, Miſmanagement and Negligence, in Reſpect to every other Conſideration than their own Intereſts, oppreſſed this Country with an enormous Addition to her Debts, ſtripped her of Thirteen invaluable Provinces, and ſpread Diſaffection and Diſcontent through all her neareſt, as well as moſt diſtant Dependancies: Whilſt the other Part of this Combination, from the mere Motives of Ambition and Self-Intereſt, would have totally deſtroyed the Balance of this moſt happy Conſtitution, by a Violation of Charters, and uſurping the Patronage of the Eaſtern World, had not your Majeſty's Wiſdom, Goodneſs, and Tenderneſs for your People, deigned to interpoſe in Behalf of your injured Subjects, by removing from your Royal Preſence and Councils this dangerous Confederacy, and ſubſtituting in their Stead Men of the higheſt public and private Principles, and of the moſt irreproachable Characters. And we beg Leave to offer you our firmeſt Aſſurances, that in every Meaſure which your Majeſty's Wiſdom ſhall deem expedient for the Support of the true Balance of the Conſtitution, and the Rights of your Majeſty's Subjects, we ſhall heartily join our firmeſt Exertions for the Completion of your Majeſty's Wiſhes, and the Support of your Perſon, juſt Prerogative, and the Conſtitution.

The following Addreſs of the Magiſtrates, Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants and Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Lancaſter, has been preſented to the King by Sir Thomas Egerton, Bart. one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County of Lancaſter, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates, Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Lancaſter, in Publick Meeting aſſembled.

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates, Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Lancaſter, in Publick Meeting aſſembled, in all Humility beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence, with the moſt unequivocal and unfeigned Aſſurances of our firm Attachment to your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon, and to that excellent Syſtem of Government which has been eſtabliſhed by the Legiſlative Wiſdom of theſe Kingdoms.

SIRE!

Solely actuated by the pureſt Patriotiſm, and gratefully ſenſible of your Majeſty's paternal Regard for the Good of your Subjects, it is with real Concern that we behold Ferments in the Nation, which muſt neceſſarily diſturb the Tranquillity of your Royal Breaſt, and inevitably tend to endanger the Well-Being of the State.

Eſteeming the due Exertion of your Royal Prerogatives, and the Conſtitutional Rights of your Subjects, equally ſacred, we hold it our bounden Duty, ſo long as we are continued in the Poſſeſſion of the one, to aid, with our moſt ſtrenuous Endeavours, and guard from Encroachment, the other, and thus ſtudy to prove ourſelves worthy the beſt of Kings, and the beſt of Conſtitutions.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, and of the underſigned Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of St. Alban, has been preſented to the King by Lord Viſcount Grimſton, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, and of the underſigned Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of St. Alban.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of St. Alban, beg Leave, at a Time when the neceſſary Buſineſs of the Nation is interrupted and impeded by unhappy and alarming Diviſions, to offer to the Throne our warmeſt Aſſurances of our ſincere Attachment to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, Family and Government.

We conſider the Prerogative of the Crown as an eſſential Part of our happy Conſtitution, and every Attempt to abridge that Prerogative, whereby to acquire a perſonal independent Share in the governing Authority, highly injurious to your Majeſty's juſt Rights, and deſtructive to the Freedom of the Subject.

And therefore beg Leave to expreſs our entire Approbation of diſmiſſing thoſe Miniſters, who undertook and warmly ſupported ſo dangerous a Meaſure, and humbly to thank your Majeſty for having exerciſed your Prerogative ſo ſalutary, conſtitutional, and ſubſervient to the Publick Good; and for calling to your Councils other Men, on whoſe diſtinguiſhed Abilities, and great Integrity, we place the utmoſt Confidence.

Deeply impreſſed with a Senſe of your Majeſty's paternal Care for the Welfare and Happineſs of all your Subjects, we intreat your Majeſty to be aſſured that we will upon all Occaſions unite in every Effort for preſerving the Publick Peace, not doubting that ſuch Meaſures will be purſued, as may effectually eſtabliſh the Glory and Happineſs of your Majeſty's Reign, and the true Intereſt of your People.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Borough of Marlborough, has been preſented to the King by the Earl of Courtown and William Woodley, Eſq. the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the Borough of Marlborough, in Common Hall aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, hold it an indiſpenſible Duty to addreſs your Majeſty on the preſent Situation of Public Affairs, and to aſſure your Majeſty, that we reverence the Wiſdom of our happy Conſtitution, which places in your Majeſty's Hands the undoubted Authority of appointing to all the great Offices of executive Government. We have the firmeſt Reliance on your Majeſty's Wiſdom and paternal Goodneſs, and conſider the Endeavour of the late Miniſters to impede the Buſineſs of the Nation in Parliament for ſome Weeks paſt, and the Attempt to conſtrain your Majeſty in the Appointment of the great Officers of the State, as Incroachments on the juſt and legal Prerogatives of the Crown, and contrary to the united Wiſhes of the Nation.

We truſt that your Majeſty will be graciouſly pleaſed to perſevere in ſuch Meaſures as in your Royal Wiſdom ſhall ſeem meet to preſerve the Royal Prerogatives undiminiſhed, and to guard the Rights and Liberties of your People againſt all Innovations.

Highly ſenſible of your Majeſty's paternal Care and Affection for your People, we pray the Almighty to continue to us the Bleſſings of your Majeſty's Reign. In Teſtimony whereof we have hereunto ſet our Hands, and affixed the Common Seal of the ſaid Borough, this Sixteenth Day of February, in the Twenty-fourth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

The following Addreſs of the Chamberlains and Common Council, Freeholders, and other Principal Inhabitants of the ancient Town and Borough of Alnwick, has been preſented to the King by the Right Honorable Lord Algernon Percy, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County of Northumberland, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty has been pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Chamberlains and Common Council, Freeholders, and other Principal Inhabitants of the ancient Town and Borough of Alnwick, met together for that Purpoſe by public Notice, in the Town Hall of Alnwick, this Thirteenth Day of February, One thouſand Seven Hundred and Eighty-four.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chamberlains and Common Council, Freeholders, and other principal Inhabitants of the ancient Town and Borough of Alnwick, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with the warmeſt Sentiments of Loyalty and Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, Family and Government, under which, by Means of our moſt excellent Conſtitution, we derive ſo many juſt and ineſtimable Benefits.

We think it our incumbent Duty, from the preſent Situation of public Affairs, to expreſs our Satisfaction that your Majeſty, in your paternal Regard for the Happineſs of your People, and in Support of the Conſtitution, has been graciouſly pleaſed to comply with the Wiſhes of your faithful Subjects, by diſmiſſing your late Miniſters, and calling into your Majeſty's Councils Men, whoſe Integrity and Talents we believe poſſeſs the Confidence of your loyal People; and which bid the faireſt, by vigorous and equitable Meaſures, to retrieve the ruinous and diſtracted State of the Empire; to infuſe Life and Energy into our Laws; and, by purſuing the great Lines of public and patriotic Virtue, to reſtore our happy Conſtitution to its priſtine Splendor and Majeſty.

Such, Sire, are our Wiſhes and our Hopes from your Majeſty's preſent Servants: And that your Majeſty may long reign as a Father over a free, happy and united People, in the due Exerciſe of every juſt Prerogative of your Crown; and that both Houſes of Parliament may unite with your Majeſty in ſupporting every Part of our glorious Conſtitution, and in handing it down, pure and inviolate, to the lateſt Poſterity, is the ſincere and ardent Wiſh of your Majeſty's faithful and loyal Subjects.

Given under our Hands, and the Seal of the Corporation, the Day and Year above written.
